

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Rulemaking for the Purpose of Amending
General Order 156.

Rulemaking 03-02-035
(Filed February 27, 2003)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
GRANTING EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO FILE COMPLIANCE REPORTS
AND ADDING A NAME TO THE SERVICE LIST

Extension Request

Ordering Paragraph 4 of Rulemaking 03-02-035 required respondent utilities (the utilities listed in Appendix B) to file and serve the report directed in the rulemaking no later than May 15, 2003, unless otherwise directed by the Commission, the Assigned Commissioner, or the assigned Administrative Law Judge. The report shall be filed in this docket and served to all parties on the service list of this rulemaking.¹

¹ Many utilities filing these reports found it necessary to request confidential treatment of some information. In that case, it would be appropriate for the utility to file a motion pursuant to General Order 66-C stating why it is necessary to keep the designated information confidential. The utility should also submit requisite copies of a redacted (public) version of the report, as well as the full unredacted report under seal to the Commission's Docket Office.

I have received the following motions for extension of time to file these reports, on the grounds that the extensions are necessary due to the individual problems each company is having regarding timely data collection and organization:

Party	Date Motion Served	Requested Extension
Allegiance Telecom of California, Inc. (Allegiance)	May 21, 2003 ²	June 2, 2003
AT&T Wireless Service of California	May 15, 2003	May 30, 2003
Cingular Wireless	May 15, 2003	June 13, 2003
Cox California Telcom, L.L.C. dba Cox Communications	May 15, 2003	May 30, 2003

Opening comments in this rulemaking are due by June 10. Therefore, a modest extension of time is reasonable, provided it does not impact the filing of the opening comments. I therefore grant the above parties until Friday, May 30, 2003, to file and serve the report directed in the rulemaking.

Service List

Allegiance is a respondent to this rulemaking as indicated in Appendix B to the rulemaking. Allegiance requests that the following appearance be added to the service list, and we grant that request.

² Although this motion was served after the due date for the report, we grant a limited extension to file the report because of no perceived prejudice to the parties in this proceeding.

2. The Commission's Process Office shall add the appearance for Allegiance Telecom of California, Inc. listed in this ruling as an appearance on the service list.
